II. Discovery that remains to be completed.

Defendant LVMPD is finalizing a supplementation of its answers to Plaintiff's interrogatories. For the reasons explained below, the Parties will need additional time to respond to written discovery and file dispositive motions incorporating those responses.

III. Specific Description of Why Extension is Necessary.

Parties seek (1) a 21-day extension for filing dispositive motions from February 20, 2024, to March 12, 2024, and (2) to continue the pretrial order date from March 18, 2024, to April 8, 2024. All other deadlines will not be affected by this extension.

Parties acknowledge that a showing of good cause is necessary for any modifications to a scheduling order within 21 days of a deadline being modified. Local Rule 26-3.

Parties assert that good cause exists for a number of reasons. Defendants are supplementing their response to Plaintiff's interrogatories, and parties believe that supplementation may contain information pertinent to dispositive motions. Defendants have been delayed in providing this information due to the time it has taken for Defendant agency to collect information related to Plaintiff's interrogatory, review that information for accuracy, and finalize the answers. In part the Defendant's response to Plaintiff's interrogatory was a compromise in lieu of further deposition testimony from Defendant's 30(b)(6) in an effort to conserve resources, meaning that the information sought by Plaintiffs was more extensive than is typical for an interrogatory.

Due to the number of parties involved and the complicated nature of the matters, Parties intend to file a motion to exceed page limits prior to filing dispositive motions. Parties are still working to determine the extent of that potential request which may need to be modified depending on the Defendant's answers to the interrogatories.

Finally, counsel for Defendants has a trial beginning next week that will last until March 4, 2024.

IV. Proposed Schedule for Completing All Remaining Deadlines

	Current Deadline	Proposed New Deadline
Amend Pleadings and Add Parties	March 18, 2023	Past Due/Unchanged
Initial Expert Disclosures	July 17, 2023	Past Due/Unchanged
Rebuttal Expert Disclosures	August 16, 2023	Past Due/Unchanged
Discovery Cut-Off	December 18, 2023	Past Due/Unchanged
Dispositive Motions	February 20, 2024	March 12, 2024
Pretrial Order	March 18, 2024 (If dispositive motions are filed, the deadline for shall be suspended until thirty (30) days after the decision of the dispositive motions or further order of the Court.)	April 8, 2024 (If dispositive motions are filed, the deadline for shall be suspended until thirty (30) days after the decision of the dispositive motions or further order of the Court.)

Based on the foregoing stipulation and proposed deadlines plan, the Parties request that the Discovery Plan and Scheduling Order deadlines be extended an additional 21 days limited to completing disclosure of the remaining interrogatory supplementation and filing dispositive motions.
